

City of Uhland temporary shift in normal operating hours. In order to better serve the community and give the staff the time they need to take care of their business and personal needs we will temporarily close the office on Mondays until the governor has lifted the shelter in place order. At that time, we will resume normal operating hours for the city and staff. Staff will be required to work Tuesday thru Friday.

City of Uhland